IOWA SENATOR WOULD MAKE RICH AMERICANS WHO LIVE ABROAD PAY HEAVY TAXES ON INCOMES FROM U. S. WEALTH

Left to right, top: Viscountess Curzon, Senator Kenyon and Countess Granard. Bottom: Duchess of Roxburghe, Mrs. William B. Leeds and Baron William Waldorf Astor.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa has introduced a bill in the upper house of congress providing for heavy taxation on the incomes earned in America of wealthy Americans who leave their country to go somewhere else to live. Some of the wealthy expatriated Americans are shown above.

PREPAREDNESS BIG TOPIC AT NATIONAL SECURITY LEAGUE MEET

Believing that there can be no national security except through the development of the individual's sense of obligation to the state, the National Security league will hold a congress in Washington the last three days of this week for the discussion of the vital issue of preparedness. Its purpose is to demonstrate the need of preparedness, to increase public knowledge of the problems involved, and to encourage the enactment of laws providing for adequate defense.
